Fighting for Your Right to Live Free

GLAD is New England's leading legal organization dedicated to ending discrimination based on sexual orientation, HIV status and gender identity and expression.

- ◆ 2003 In a case questioning whether a same-sex extra-marital relationship constitutes adultery, GLAD filed a brief with the NH Supreme Court arguing that same-sex relationships should be considered as significant as any others.
- ◆ 2002 GLAD won LGBT families equal access to family membership rates at the Nashua YMCA.
- ◆ 2001-2003 GLAD is helping the surviving partner of a lesbian who died on September 11, 2001 to ensure her equal treatment as a spouse in matters relating to probate and the federal fund for surviving family of 9/11 victims.
- ◆ 2001 GLAD sued a physician in south NH for refusing to provide in-office treatment to an HIV-positive patient because of discriminatory concerns about equipment sterilization.
- ◆ 2000 GLAD won a change in the practice of the Nashua Housing Authority, which had been illegally demanding private medical information about individuals living in subsidized housing.
- ◆ 1999-2002 GLAD successfully resolved the first NH public accommodation sexual orientation case, on behalf of a woman denied treatment by her dentist after he learned she was a lesbian.
- ◆ 1999 GLAD, along with NH co-counsel, filed suit against the Manchester School District, forcing them to recognize a student-initiated Gay/Straight Alliance at West High School.
- ◆ 1996 GLAD helped overturn a ban on any discussion of gay and lesbian issues in Merrimack schools, upholding the teachers' and students' rights of free speech.
- ◆ 1994 GLAD won the right of a New Hampshire non-biological mother to sue for visitation with the son she jointly raised.
- ◆ 1994 GLAD successfully sued Delta Airlines on behalf of a Dover man who was barred from a Delta airplane because of HIV-related symptoms.
