(September 2018)

Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer (LGBTQ) Youth have rights. Know your rights! If you have questions or need help, just contact GLAD Answers at www.GLADAnswers.org or by phone at (800) 455-GLAD (4523). A friendly volunteer will assist you 1-on-1. It is free and totally confidential.

IF YOU ARE A PUBLIC SCHOOL STUDENT

LGBTQ youth have the right to attend school in safety and free from discrimination and harassment based on their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

- LGBTQ youth must have equal access to and be allowed to participate on equal terms in all school programs, including extracurricular activities.
- Schools must keep LGBTQ youth safe from bullying, harassment and violence by teachers and staff, or other students. Bullying is defined as: repeated use of written/oral/electronic communication or physical act by one or more students directed at another student in the same school district that:
 - causes or places you in fear of physical or emotional harm to yourself or damage to your property;
 - creates a hostile educational environment;
 - infringes on your rights; or
 - substantially disrupts your education.
- All Connecticut school boards must adopt an anti-bullying plan and copies of the plan must be posted on the internet and in the student handbook.
- LGBTQ youth have the right to be open about their sexual orientation and gender identity and expression.

- Schools must respect the gender identity of transgender students. The Connecticut Safe School Coalition has published guidelines that public schools must follow. See: http://www.ct.gov/chro/lib/chro/Guidelines_for_Schools_on_Gender_Identity_and_Expression_final_4-24-12.pdf.
- Students have the right to form extracurricular groups, such as Gay-Straight Alliances on the same terms and with the same privileges and resources as all other extracurricular groups (some private school students also have this right).
- LGBTQ youth have the right to free speech and expression, including the right to express ideas respectfully that may offend others, and to disagree with others.
- Any school, public or private, which receives federal funds may not discriminate on the basis of sex or HIV status. Sometimes the harassment of a gay or transgender student will be sexual harassment, which is forbidden by the federal law known as Title IX.
- Students have the right to learn about LGBTQ issues and must have access to information and resources about LGBTQ issues and people, including educational websites, regardless of objecting school officials or parents.

IF YOU ARE IN THE CHILD WELFARE SYSTEM

LGBTQ youth have the right to safe and appropriate placements in the child welfare system, free from discrimination and harassment based on their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

- LGBTQ youth have the right to be free from harassment and abuse based on actual or perceived sexual orientation or gender identity or expression in foster care placements. This means that youth should be protected from both physical and emotional harm in their placements, and should be placed with caretakers who will ensure their safety and wellbeing outside the home.
- LGBTQ youth have the right to be open about their sexual orientation and gender identity and expression.
- Transgender youth have the right to be identified by the name and pronouns that accord with his or her gender identity and to wear clothing consistent with his or her gender identity.
- LGBTQ youth have the right to be free from religious indoctrination that condemns or disparages their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

LGBTQ youth have the right to equal treatment and to access appropriate services for their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression while in the child welfare system.

- LGBTQ youth must have access to appropriate medical or mental health care, and should not be forced to undergo improper or disreputable services damaging to their wellbeing, such as reparative or conversion therapy.
- LGBTQ youth should be treated equally to heterosexual and gender conforming youth, including with regard to age appropriate displays of affection.
- LGBTQ youth should have access to supportive materials and resources.

IF YOU ARE IN THE JUVENILE JUSTICE SYSTEM

LGBTQ youth have the right to safe and appropriate placements in the juvenile justice system free from discrimination and harassment based on their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.

- LGBTQ youth are entitled to protection from physical, emotional or sexual abuse by other youth or facility staff.
- A facility's response to harassment or violence against an LGBTQ youth cannot be to move the LGBTQ youth to a more restrictive facility or to isolate the LGBTQ youth.
- LGBTQ youth cannot be segregated or classified as sex offenders based on myths that LGBTQ youth will prey on other youth.
- LGBTQ youth have the right to be open about their sexual orientation and gender identity and expression.
- Transgender youth have the right to be identified by the name and pronouns that accord with their gender identity and to wear clothing consistent with their gender identity.

LGBTQ youth have the right to equal treatment and to access appropriate services for their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression while in the juvenile justice system.

- LGBTQ youth must have access to appropriate medical or mental health care, both for general services and for any medical services that may be unique to LGBTQ youth.

- LGBTQ youth should not be forced to undergo improper or disreputable services damaging to their wellbeing, such as reparative or conversion therapy.
- LGBTQ youth may not be disciplined for engaging in age-appropriate romantic or sexual conduct that would not be punishable between two different-sex youth.
- LGBTQ youth have the right to be free from religious indoctrination by facility staff that condemns or disparages their sexual orientation or gender identity or expression.
