

LGBTQ STUDENTS: KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO

-  Attend school safely, free of bullying, harassment or discrimination.
-  Have your affirmed name and pronouns used.
-  Dress and express yourself in a manner consistent with your gender identity.
-  Use the bathroom and locker room consistent with your gender identity.
-  Take a date of any gender to prom.
-  Access information about LGBTQ topics at school.
-  Participate in school sports & activities consistent with your gender identity.
-  Keep your school and medical records confidential.
-  Ask your school to amend their records to reflect your current name and gender.
-  Understand your school's discipline procedures if you are being disciplined.

IF YOU EXPERIENCE BULLYING OR DISCRIMINATION

-  Document any incidents you experience.
-  Talk to a trusted teacher or counselor.
-  Look at your school's policies (usually in a student handbook or online), find out who to notify, and file a report.
-  Contact GLAD Answers, our confidential legal information line.
